

NOTE: THIS DOCUMENT MAY BE IN REVISION

A List of Known Exovede Participants of the Battles for the Stolen South Branch Lands in 1885

Based on The People of the Métis Nation and/or Dictionary of Métis Biography by Lawrence Barkwell

© Darcy John Bouchard. Li Exôuïle

© 12/2012

South Branch Battles

Métis Fighters and other Exovede Resistance Activists	Duck Lake	Coulée des Tourond's	Batoché Crossing	Other
Boucher, Solomon (23)		X	X
Boyer, François Côté (33) - mortally wounded and died 3 days later		X
Boyer, Isidore (56) - died at Batoché on last day			X
Boyer, Jean-Baptiste (40) - fled to Qu'Appelle after the Battle of Duck Lake	X
Breland, Gilbert (47) - scout at Coulee des Tourond		X	X
Carrière, Damase (34) - cruelly murdered by the Canadians - a war crime		X	X	martyr
Chief Cayen dît Boudreau, Isidore "Petequakey" (40) ¹	X
Capt. Beaugrand dît Champagne, Ambroise (41) - led 80 cavalry to relief of Coulée des Tourond's		X
Beaugrand dît Champagne, Emmanuel (62) - Batoché founding family			X
Chamberland, Philippe Charles (24) - Exovede quartermaster			X
Decoteau (Descôteaux), Pierre aka Peter Dakota				Cut Knife Hill
Delorme, Joseph (36) - captured and shot in the testicles - a war crime	X		X	martyr
Delorme, Norbert "Mankachee" Hénault (48) - War Chief of the Métis				Cut Knife Hill Battleford & Bresaylor
Deschamps, (Jean)-Baptiste (36)		X
Desjarlais, Michel (32) - wounded and died 3 days later		X
Donaire, Gregory				Frog Lake
Ducharme, Charles (42) - died at Battle of Batoché			X
Dumas, Isidore (34) - fled to Montana	X	X	X

¹ He did not view this as fighting the government since their opponents were the police. After 1885, Indian Affairs removed Petequakey as chief and stopped payments to the band because of their participation in the Resistance.

Dumont, Ambroise Sr. (29) - died at Battle of Batoché				X
Capt. Dumont, Edouard (40) - he could read music	X	X		X
Dumont, Gabriel (48) - chef Métis	X	X		X
Capt. Dumont, Isidore  fils (52) - murdered by Joe McKay	X
Dumont dit Cayole, François (30) - took treaty				X
Dumont dit Cayole, Louis (32) - took treaty				X
Dumont dit Cayole, Vital (55) - took treaty				X
Fagnant, Cuthbert (Corbette) (~62) - last stand with Gabriel and Edouard Dumont				X
Capt. Falcon, Athanase (36)					Battleford
Favel, Basil (48)					Cut Knife Hill
Favel, Louison (43)					Cut Knife Hill
Fisher, Alexandré Jr. (44) - guarding the Northcote				X
Capt. Fleury, Patrice Joseph (37) - west side river at Batoché	X			X
Capt. Philipe Elzéar Gariépy (46)	X			X
Gratton, Marcile (10) ² - killed by the Gatling gun in the last charge - a war crime				∞	martyr
Henry, Jerome Hector (29) - a Métis spy - wounded at li Coulée des Tourond's			X
Henry, Patrice (14) - cared for the horses	X
Honoré dit Henry, Pierre (47)				X
Jobin, Ambroise Jr. (34) - died 23 May 1885, Saskatoon				X
Ladouceur, François (21) - had no gun but carried a flag	X
Capt. Lafontaine dit Faillant, Antoine (36)			X	X
Capt. Laframboise, Augustin (41) - killed Duck Lake	X
Lavallée, Louis Philippe (22) - last stand graveyard trenches				X
Lavallée, Pierre "Mac" (25) - last stand graveyard trenches				X
Laverdure, Pierre "Beau-blé" (47)			X
Lépine, Maxime père MLA (39)			X	X
Lépine, Maxime fils (19)			X	X
Lépine, Patrice Tobie (17)			X	X
Letendré, Alexandré (20)				X
Letendré, André "Petchis" (48) - killed at Batoché				X
Malaterre, Louis (39) - scout Clarke's Crossing			X
McKay, Guillaume (30) - killed Lt. John Morton NWMP No. 1 Co. Volunteers	X
Montour, Abraham père (53)					Frog Lake
					Frenchman's Butte
Alexandré Montour, Alexandré				X

² Gratton, Marcile (10): father: French half-breed, mother: Native girl - from the Saskatoon Dakota group.

Montour, Jean-Baptiste (28) - killed at Duck Lake	X
Montour, Jean-Baptiste (25)			X
Montour, Joseph (20) - killed at Duck Lake	X
Montour, Pascal père (52) - killed at Duck Lake	X
Nault, André "Nin-Nin" fils (25)				Frog Lake
				Frenchman's Butte
Nault, Napoléon (27)	X	X	X
Nolin, Adolphus (24) - protected the white women				Fort Pitt, Battleford
Nolin, Charles, MLA (62)- traitor fled Duck Lake	X
Ouellette, Cyprian (18) - conscripted			X
Ouellette, José (Joseph) (93) ³ - killed at Batoché on the last day			X	hero
Ouellette, Joseph III (51)			X
Ouellette, Moïse Napoleon (45)	X		X
Parenteau, Isidore "Wabash" (33) - sent to Battle River
Parenteau, Jean-Baptiste père (53) - wounded at Batoché			X
Parenteau, St-Pierre (24) ⁴ - killed at Coulée des Tourond's		X
Parisien, Elzéar (36) - scout Clarke's Crossing - last stand graveyard trenches		X	X
Pelletier, Edouard (49) - wounded in leg at Batoché			X
Piché, François "Coyote" (38) - son of Chief Bobtail				Battleford
Poitras, Ignace Zenon " Betillet " père (56) - guard of the prisoners			X
Poitras, Ignace Zenon fils (35)		X	X
Poitras, Jean-Baptiste (20) - died 14 August 1885 at Batoché			X
Poitras, Maxime (22)			X
Poitras, Michel (18)			X
Racette dit Pelletier, Louis (40)				Cut Knife Hill
Riel, Louis "David", MLA, MP (41)	X		X	martyr
Ross, Donald Daniel (63) - shot/bayoneted in retaliation for killing Capt. French			X	martyr
Sauvé, Norbert fils (36) - conscript - surrendered			X	west side river
Sayers, Cleophas (Cleophile) (35) - arrested in Battleford
Sayers, Jean-Baptiste (32) - captured wagon train from Swift Current to Battleford
Capt. Short, James "Timeous" (51)	X	X	X
Smith, Honoré (Gabriel Dumont's nephew)			X

³ According to Barkwell in The People of the Métis Nation, the hero Joseph "Jose" Ouellette was buried separate from the mass grave - the only martyr buried in a coffin. But, elsewhere it is said that he was buried sitting up in the mass grave with other casualties of the battle.

⁴ According to Barkwell in The People of the Métis Nation St-Pierre Parenteau (1861-1885) son of Jean-Baptiste Parenteau and Pelagie Dumont - and Gabriel Dumont's nephew - fought and was killed during the Battle for Coulée des Tourond's - his brother Jean-Baptiste was wounded during this battle.

Swain, John "Natumeo" (56) - died at Battle of Batoché			X
Thomas, Charles "Challius" (23) - wounded in arm		X	X
Tourond, Calixte (32) - killed last day of the Battle of Batoché			X
Tourond, Charles Menard (21)			X
Tourond, Elzéar (27) - killed last day of the Battle of Batoché			X
Trottier, Charles Jr. (20)	X	X	X
Trottier, Cuthbert (Corbett) (23)
Trottier, Isidore (22)		X	X
Trottier, Jean "Johny" "War-bish-tee-gwan" (32)		X	X
Trottier, Joseph Jr. "Assiyiwin"	X
Trottier, Joseph Sr. (57) - killed at the Battle of Batoché			X
Capt. Trottier, Michel (53) - killed at the Battle of Batoché			X
Trottier, Remi (24)		X	X
Capt. Vandal, (Jean)-Baptiste père (55)	X
Vandal, Joseph "La Pioche" (75) - he was shot, had both arms broken, and was bayoneted in the final battle at Batoché			X	hero
Vermette, Joseph "José" III (53) - killed Coulée des Tourond's		X		